THE BANK FAILURE.

Special Grand Jury Called to Inquire Into the Affairs of the Oberlin Concern.

BECKWITH AND SPEAR TO TESTIFY

Effort to Be Made to See If Crimes Were Committed Which Come Within Court's Jurisdiction.

No Conference Held Between Federal Officers and Andrew Carnegie Regarding Notes Alleged to Have Been Given Iri Reynolds.

Elyria, O., Dec. 7.—Judge Washburn has called a special grand jury at the request of Prosecutor Stroup, of Lorain county, to inquire into the Oberlin bank failure. The jury will be drawn Thursday morning. An effort will be made to discover if any crimes were committed which come within the jurisdiction of the court. Oberlin is in Lorain county. It is reported that the action of Prosecutor Stroup was taken up on the request, or complaint, of Andrew Carnegie. This report, however, can not be confirmed. Subpoenas have been issued for President Beckwith and Cashier Spear of the closed Oberlin bank to appear before the grand jury to testify.

Expected Did Not Happen.

New York, Dec. 7.—The expected did not happen Tuesday night, and all predictions proved at fault when at a late hour it was announced that no conference between federal officers and Andrew Carnegie had been held at the latter's home. This turn was surprising, for Mr. Carnegie had announced in the course of the day that he would be glad to receive a federal officer, and it was supposed that F. F. Oldham, representing the controller of the currency, would meet him Tuesday night, and that the matter of the notes alleged to have been given Iri Reynolds, of Cleveland, and said to bear the name of Andrew Carnegie, would be discussed.

As unexpected as the news that no conference was held was the departure of Mrs. Chadwick from the Holland house, where she has resided for the New Amsterdam hotel. She was accompanied by her son and a maid and took with her some baggage. Secret service men who have been at the Holland for several days followed Mrs. Chadwick.

Stories of Possible Arrests.

Andrew Squire, a Cleveland attorney, representing Iri Reynolds, made the announcement Tuesday night after several conferences with Receiver Lyon, Mr. Oldham and others that he believed there would be no further developments in the case before Wednesday, and also said that Mr. Oldham had returned to Washington. This announcement was the first indication that there would not be a meeting at Mr. Carnegie's home Tuesday night.

Stories of a possible arrest in the case were still current Tuesday evening, but so far as known no warrant has been issued.

Lawyer Carpenter, one of Mrs. Chadwick's counsel in New York, declined to give the results of the numerous conferences Tuesday. Percy W. Carver, counsel for Herbert D. Newton, in an interview said that the Newton claim had not been paid and that no new assurances had been given as to its payment, and George W. Ryall, associated with Mr. Carver, gave no new information besides confirming the story that he had been in conference with Mrs. Chadwick Tuesday. As to the subject of their talk he declined to make any statement.

Carnegie Don't Know Her.

New York, Dec. 7.—Mr. Carnegie, for the first time, Tuesday said personally to reporters that if his name appeared on any notes it was not his signature. "I don't know the woman," he said, "and I never heard of her until the newspapers began to take up her case."

ELKS' HOME SITE.

Chairman of Special Committee on Selection Presented With a Token.

Baltimore, Dec. 7.—Henry W. Mears, chairman of the special committee of grand lodge members of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, which selected the site and arranged for the building of Elks' home at Bedford City, Va., was presented Tuesday night with a handsome silver service, in recognition of his work in connection with the establishment of the home. The token was ordered by the grand lodge.

GUARDED BY A DOG.

Fragments of His Master's Body Were Gathered Up.

Falmouth, Ky., Dec. 7.—Beside the body of a man dismembered and mangled beyond recognition a faithful Irish setter, known to have been owned by William Coleman, was found on guard by the railroad tracks near Falmouth and the story of the death of Coleman under the wheels of a train was told.

Coleman was drunk, it is believed, when he was overtaken by a train in the darkness and killed. Blood stains and bits of cloth showed that parts of the body had been scattered for some distance along the track. The dog had gone over the ground, picked up the flesh and clothing of his dead master and brought them back to the spot where the trunk lay, placing the fragments by the trunk and standing by the remains, keeping watch over them. When persons approached the dog bristled up and showed fight. It required much coaxing to get the animal to allow the men to approach the body and remove it to an undertaking establishment.

The point at which Coleman was killed was the same at which his father was killed 14 years ago.

HORSEMEN AT LEXINGTON.

They Are After Some Kentucky Trotting and Pacing Stock.

Lexington, Ky., Dec. 7.—A. McDonald, the well-known trotting-horse driver, of Port Henry, N. Y., and accompanied by L. D. King, of the same place, arrived here Tuesday night. McDonald is after some trotting and pacing stock, and it is said that he is about to close a deal for Clem Beachey's crack pacing mare, Her Grace, which gave such a creditable performance at the Memphis meeting. Another light harness celebrity also arrived here Tuesday night in the person of H. Johnson, of Boston. He is on the same kind of a mission.

Louisville Tobacco Market.

Louisville, Ky., Dec. 7.—There was only a small amount of burley offered on the tobacco breaks Tuesday, but prices were firm. The dark market was quiet. ## IN THE CONGRESS.

President Roosevelt's State Paper Was Read in Both Branches Tuesday Afternoon.

TWO NEW SENATORS TOOK OATH

A Bill to Redeem Treasury Notes Known as Silver Certificates in Gold Coin Introduced.

Senator Platt's Bill Providing For Reduction of Representation of Certain States in Congress Principally in the South.

Washington, Dec. 7.—Senate—The senate was in session for more than two hours Tuesday and in addition to listening to the reading of the president's message, received a preliminary report from the merchant marine commission, witnessed the induction of Senators Knox and Crane into office and in executive session referred the presidential nominations to the proper committees. The reading of the commissions of the two new senators attracted more attention than usual in such cases on account of their prominence, and senators generally did not fail to note the peculiar wording of Gov. Pennypacker's communication, wherein conferred the office of senator upon Mr. Knox, employing him to hold it with all its emoluments and privileges until the next meeting of the legislature of the state "if he shall so long behave himself well."

House—After listening to the reading of the president's annual message Tuesday the house adjourned until Wednesday. During the first ten minutes of the session, two minor routine matters were disposed of. Representative Hill (Ct.) Tuesday introduced a bill providing for the redemption of United States treasury notes known as silver certificates in gold coin and directing the secretary of the treasury to set apart $150,000,000 in gold and bullion for the purpose. The act makes it the duty of the secretary of the treasury to maintain gold reserve corresponding to not less than 35 per cent. of all United States notes in circulation. For the debt incurred by the redemption of the notes, the secretary of the treasury is to issue bonds of $50 or any multiple bearing interest at 3 per cent.

Senator Platt's Bill.

Senator Thomas C. Platt, of New York, will introduce a bill providing for the reduction of the representation of certain states in congress, principally in the south. Many bills of this character have been offered from time to time in the other branch of congress, but no persistent effort has been exerted to pass any of them. The measure to be presented by Senator Platt is said to have originated in the report of republican club in New York city.

Senator Platt, when he presents the bill, will call attention to the fact that it will affect northern states, especially Massachusetts, as well as states in the south. Its backers will declare that the measure is non-partisan.

The bill proposes that the representation of a state shall be based on the male voting population, according to the last official census. The reduction in southern and solidly democratic delegations should the bill become a law is estimated at 16 members.

PRESIDENT FRANCIS.

He Is To Make a Tour of the World in the Spring.

Francis, president of the Louisiana Purchase exposition, is to make a tour of the world to repay visits of foreign dignitaries, and to express the gratitude of St. Louis and the national government for the liberality of foreign nations and exhibitors. London, Dec. 7.—A majority of the newspapers editorially approve of President Roosevelt's advocacy of a strong army and navy in order to preserve "the peace of justice," and acquit Mr. Roosevelt of any jingo aims in his message.

CALEB POWERS.

The Appellate Court Grants Him a New Trial.

Frankfort, Ky., Dec. 7.—The appellate court Tuesday handed down a decision granting a new trial to Caleb Powers, twice convicted in connection with the alleged conspiracy which resulted in the murder of Gov. Goebel. The Scott circuit court is, of course, reversed. The friends of Powers, among whom are some of the most influential residents of cities all over the United States, will no doubt be elated. He has never given up hope. When convicted the first time and sentenced to life imprisonment he and his friends redoubled their efforts and he was given another trial, which ended in a death sentence. While in the jail in Louisville he received contributions from all over the United States, enabling him to employ attorneys who finally succeeded in convincing the appellate judges that there had been error in his last trial. It is stated that much new testimony has been secured.

TO ENCOURAGE RIFLE PRACTICE.

Acting Secretary of War Sends a Communication to Speaker Cannon.

Washington, Dec. 7.—Acting Secretary Oliver, of the war department, has sent to the speaker of the house of representatives a letter earnestly requesting favorable action by congress of legislation proposed by Lieut. Gen. Chaffee, chief of staff, to encourage rifle practice in the army. Under existing law expert riflemen in the army are allowed $1 per month extra. The proposed legislation gives to expert riflemen $3 per month, sharpshooters $2 per month and marksmen $1 per month extra. It is said that the change will involve no increase in the annual appropriation for expert riflemen.

Carriers who have been less than one year in the service are to be entitled to a leave of absence of one and one-quarter days for each month served. R. comrades, but did not desire the appointment.

A TRIPLE TRAGEDY.

Wilson Burns Shot and Killed His Wife and Joseph Gripe, Near Rochester, Ind.

AN INVALID WOMAN WOUNDED.

Murderer Then Went to the Home of His Sister and Shot Himself Through the Head.

The Couple Had Separated and the Wife Was Employed By Gripe—The Baby in Its Mother's Arms Was Uninjured.

Rochester, Ind., Dec. 7.—Three dead and one seriously wounded is the result of the jealousy of Wilson Burns, aged 50, who Tuesday night shot and instantly killed his wife and Joe Gripe, at whose home his wife was employed. After the killing Burns walked two miles to the home of his sister, where he blew off the top of his own head. Mrs. Braman, who also lived at the home of Gripe, was struck by scattering shot from the charges that killed the other members of the household, and is in a serious condition. She will probably recover.

The murders were committed at the home of Joseph Gripe, one of the victims. Burns was a teacher and was separated from his wife, who had taken employment at the Gripe home, four miles south of here. The murders were committed with a shotgun.

The Man Drank to Excess.

After the killing Burns went to the home of his sister, Mrs. Werner, living two miles away, and after entering the yard shot himself through the head with his gun. He was dead when found a moment after the shooting. Burns drank to excess at times and his wife had taken her four children and left him several times before to avoid his treatment. While at Marion recently he told some of his relatives that he was going back home to kill his wife, Joseph Sprowl, her father, and Joseph Gripe, whom he charged with alienating his wife's affections. Letters were sent here from Marion warning those threatened. Burns returned recently to the Werner home, where he was living. He did not repeat his threats, and no trouble had been feared.

The murdered wife is his second, his first wife having left him 12 years ago on account of his habits. Gripe was unmarried and lived with his aged mother. Mrs. Burns was employed at the house. Mrs. Braman, who was injured by shot, is an aged woman who made her home with the Gripe family.

The Victims Were at Supper.

Late Tuesday evening Burns took his shotgun and started for the Gripe home, arriving at 6:30 while the family was at supper. He fired through the window, tearing a part of his wife's head off. The baby beside her escaped injury. Before the family could move a second shot came through the window, taking effect in Gripe's head, killing him instantly. The murderer then walked away, and on arriving at his sister's home, two miles away, placed the muzzle of the gun in his mouth and shot his head off. Mrs. Braman was struck by the flying shot but will recover. She is an invalid and can not walk. Gripe's aged mother, who was at the table, was not injured.

When Sheriff Bailey and his deputies arrived at the scene of the murder the body of the dead woman was found sitting in a chair. The body of Gripe was found lying under the supper table.

A NEGRO MOB.

White Men Prevented It From Lynching One of Their Own Race.

Columbus, Ga., Dec. 7.—Only the most determined effort on the part of white men has prevented the lynching of William Vaughn at the hands of a Negro mob in Russell county, Ala. Vaughn confessed that he robbed his wife's grandmother, set fire to her house, murdered her and threw her bleeding body into the flames a few days ago. After the capture of Vaughn a mob of Negroes quickly assembled. Only a most determined front on the part of Sheriff Bellamy and a number of white men who gathered expecting trouble saved the Negro's life.

WEATHER FORECAST.

Fair to-night and Thursday.

NOT FOR PUBLIC GAZE.

The kindly, sympathetic feeling for those who suffer bereavement or are in any way afflicted is truly noble and should be cultivated. The feeling takes various forms of expression, sometimes in acts of kindness, sometimes in words of tenderness. Both are helpful alike to the one who receives and the one who gives. In any case, whether a deed or a word, it concerns only the two parties directly interested. It is a matter in which the rule laid down by the greatest authority on ethics would seem to apply, "Let not your left hand know what your right hand doeth."

The Patriot has held that the publication of cards of thanks is not in good form and that the thanks should be expressed in person or by written note to the one to whom the obligation is due. It holds also that resolutions and poetical expressions of sympathy should be conveyed in the same quiet, unostentatious manner. Newspapers are frequently asked to print these by people who entertain only the purest motives of sympathy, but to whom this view of the matter has not presented itself. When it is suggested they usually admit that it is correct.—Carrollton (Ill.) Patriot.

Commenting on the above an exchange says: If the Patriot shall succeed in educating its readers up to this view of the subject it will have performed a public service. The obituary muse does not belong to the heights of Parnassus. Consorting with the household gods or the colder divinities of the counting room, her lachrymose utterances have nothing of poetry in them and serve only to excite the ridicule of the public or the sort of pity you feel for a friend when he does something foolish. Why grief stricken families or their friends imagine they can write poetry on such occasions passes the understanding.

IN LIFE AND IN DEATH.

Beautiful Custom of the Elks in Holding Annual Memorial Services For Their Dead.

On the first Sunday in December in each and every year the members of the Elks, all over the country, hold their "Jodge of sorrow" at which time with appropriate ceremonies words of sympathy and love, words of remembrance and affection are uttered in memory of those of their brothers who have passed into the realms of the great unknown. The custom is a beautiful one and the Elks are to be commended for their efforts in this direction, marking as it does a link in the great chain of fraternal devotion that binds the hearts of men together.

As each year comes and goes the list of the honored dead in Elksdom must necessarily increase and yet none are forgotten. Many a brave swimmer, battling with the stream of life, unable to longer sustain himself, has been compelled to give up the fight and succumb to the inevitable, but they are not forgotten. The memorial services of the Elks are designed for the purpose of keeping their memories green, fresh within the hearts of all, while the fingers of the dial, pointing to the hour of eleven o'clock is something more, something deeper than a mere sentiment, in that it brings strong men face to face with stern realities, with facts of existence and kindles each night the flames of fraternal love, making the heart warmer towards all humanity. More than this, these memorial services mean that the living grant a few hours of one day each year to revile the memory of the dead and by loving references to their names they are thus kept constantly before them.

It is not alone, however, with the dead that the Elks deal, for they are known as one of the greatest benevolent organizations in existence and they have never hesitated to minister to the wants of a living, suffering humanity. Upon the principle that nothing can be done to help the dead beyond memorializing them they turn their greatest efforts to those now existing in the great, seething world and in a solid, substantial manner they give practical demonstrations of the fact that their organization is something more than a mere name, something real, something active, earnest, energetic.—Lexington Herald.

Governor Black can't succeed in making Powers appear white no matter how hard he may try.

Even admitting that Governor Black does think Caleb Powers innocent, that doesn't alter his guilt one whit.

Dennis Hanley knows more about Powers and his guilt in one minute than Governor Black ever will know, although both are Republicans.

It takes a little of the heaven of adversity to make men properly sympathize with their fellow-men in trouble. What then could such characters as Rockefeller know of the teaching of the word that commanded the rich young man to sell all that he had and distribute to the poor.

WINTER'S WHITE PALACE,

MAYSVILLE, KY

ECHOES OF THE WRECK.

Fireman David Holderfield Was to Have Been Married at Falmouth on Christmas Day.

Engineer Bert Gregory, whose foot had to be taken off to save him from being scalded to death by escaping steam at the wreck in the C. and O. yards here Monday morning, is reported doing well at St. Elizabeth's Hospital, Cincinnati. He is one of the most trusted employees of the C. and O., having been connected with the road since 1889. He is the father of Miss Ida May Gregory, a well-known and talented elocutionist.

Fireman Holderfield, who was killed, lived in Dayton, O. He resigned his position with the road some time ago, but about two weeks since returned, making runs as an extra man. It is said that he was engaged to a young woman in Falmouth, and was to have been married Christmas Day. His remains when taken out of the wreck were scarcely recognizable. The lower portion of both legs were burned off. The body was shipped to Vermont, Ky., to be laid to rest in the family burial ground there.

IMPROVEMENTS CONTEMPLATED.

Chesapeake and Ohio to Erect Big Office Building at Covington and Establish Extensive Freight Yards.

The C. and O. will soon begin extensive improvements in Covington, it is said. A three-story building will be erected that will contain twelve rooms to each floor, and will be used as the operating offices.

Another report that is attracting attention is that the company has purchased a strip of land about fifteen miles from the city for the establishment of railroad yards for the handling of freight.

If this statement is correct it gives color to the oft-repeated assertion that the C. and O. intends to build a bridge across the Ohio, between Fulton and California.

Cincinnati officials claim to know nothing of the details of either of the proposed improvements, but that some such schemes are on foot is tacitly admitted.

All makes sewing machines at Gerbrich's.

Rev. W. T. Spears will preach at Sharon Church next Sunday.

Mrs. Phoebe Pollock died Monday at Germantown after a long illness. She was a sister of Mrs Sue Kilpatrick of this city.

The Jury Commissioners appointed to select grand and petit jurors for the coming year are: Harry Taylor, R. B. Holton and A. P. Gooding.

Thursday will be the feast of the Immaculate Conception, a feast of obligation in the Catholic Church. Services will be held at St. Patrick's at 6 and 8 o'clock a. m. on that day.

The funeral of Mrs. James Osborne yesterday afternoon was attended by many friends of the family in the city and county. The services were held at the residence on West Second street, Rev. Grätz of the German Lutheran Church, of which deceased was a member, officiating.

Miss Margaret Calvert, aged thirty years, died of consumption Monday morning at 6 o'clock, at the home of her brother, Mr. Max Calvert of near Sardinia. She was a daughter of Mr. Maximilian Calvert of near Lewisburg. The funeral took place from Shannon Church Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, services by Rev. Eckler.

The management of Washington opera house received the following telegram from Frankfort yesterday:

H. L. Hamilton—The Burgomaster appeared here last night to a crowded house. You can guarantee your patrons a musical treat and an excellent performance. D. J. McNAMARA, Manager Capitol Opera House.

The "Burgomaster" appears here tomorrow night. Seats are selling rapidly. Secure yours now, at Ray's.

Mr. W. L. Douglas, the Democrat who was elected Governor of Republican Massachusetts, attributes the result to "publicity and a real issue." He says: "Advertising made my business pay and I used it to the limit in arousing and directing the sentiment which I knew to be widespread on the subject which was our chief issue—reciprocity and tariff relief." From long business experience Mr. Douglas had learned the value of newspaper advertising and he very sensibly applied the idea in his political canvas. The advantages of publicity from newspaper advertising are evidently coming to be more and more widely known.—Kansas City Star.

The Home Store!

From the old man down to the least important salesman in our house we are a lot of "cranks." We sell hundreds of suits that the purchaser would never notice a slight deficiency in the fit. "We do," and do not let them go out of the house unless the fault is corrected. The aggregate cost of these alterations, many of them so slight that only the most experienced clothier can detect them, amounts to several hundreds of dollars a year, but the satisfaction of giving our patrons perfect fitting clothes more than compensates us for this "cranky" outlay. Besides "it pays." Our customers feel themselves safe in our hands, knowing their interest is looked to as well as ours. Special low prices will rule during this month.

ECONOMY

Is invariably the result when in buying eatables you buy the best. Never buy anything to eat when not good because it looks cheap. It is dear at any price. In these days of adulteration and low priced foods it becomes the duty of every one to scan closely what he buys and reject everything of a suspicious character. In order to be on the safe side always buy of the experienced dealer who knows the good from the bad and who will not handle impure and poisonous goods. I am now opening an unusually large and most attractive stock of high grade goods for the fall and winter trade.

New Crop. New Orleans Molasses

direct from the plantation to the consumer. No better made. FINEST SORGHUM ever sold in Maysville. The only trouble is in getting as much of it as I can sell. My stock of CANNED GOODS is immense—bought direct from the packers. When prices were very much lower than they are now I bought heavily of Green Coffee and am in position to name very attractive prices on either green or roasted goods. I get in each week a supply of freshly roasted goods from the roasting house in New York where I have my Coffee for roasting stored, and can sell you better Coffee at 15, 20 and 25 cents than others sell at 20, 25 and 30 cents. My stock of Teas—green and black is always full and complete.

PERFECTION FLOUR

is the finest flour sold in Maysville. In fact it has no superior anywhere. My stock of Apples, Oranges, Lemons, Bananas, Figs, Citron, Orange and Lemon Peel, Dates, Raisins, Almonds, Walnuts, Meat and Plum Pudding, Prunes, Buckwheat Flour, Maple Syrup, White Clover Honey, Cereals of all kinds, Hominy, Beans &c. of the very best. Ladener's Crab Cider, Baltimore Oysters in bulk and cans, Celery, Cranberries, Poultry and Game, in fact everything good to eat of the very best. Look out for my holiday special and when you come to our city you are specially invited to make my house your headquarters. Remember, I buy all kinds of country produce such as Butter, Eggs, Poultry, Game &c. Will buy one hundred extra cured old Country Hams in weight from ten to fifteen pounds each.
